DATE: December 10, 2001 ACLA Letter No. 01-21

TO: All County Lead Agencies (ACLA)

SUBJECT: SUBSTANCE ABUSE AND CRIME PREVENTION ACT OF 2000 (SACPA)

DRUG TREATMENT ASSESSMENT CONTACTS

On September 24, 2001, the Office of Criminal Justice Collaboration released ACLA Letter No. 01-12 on cross-jurisdictional issues. That letter discussed the benefits of having a published list of assessment contacts when there are cross-jurisdictional issues. In order to support the expeditious movement of SACPA offenders from the courts and/or the parole authority to treatment, we will be maintaining a list of the assessment contacts in each county.

We ask for your assistance in identifying and keeping us current on your county's assessment contact(s). You may have recently noted that we have begun posting monthly updates of the SACPA Lead Agencies to our web site, including all changes submitted to us in the previous month. We plan to similarly post and maintain an associated listing of county assessment contacts. You are asked to provide the following information:

- Name
- Title (optional)
- Organization
- Mailing Address
- · City, State, Zip
- Phone
- Fax
- E-mail

In most cases, excepting the larger counties, we would expect to receive a single county contact, for the convenience of our criminal justice partners. A web-based version will be posted at the beginning of each month. In order to get your information posted, we ask that you submit changes by the 25th of each month.
